DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1, 2, 11, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The present amendment, which adds the inclusion of the protrusion being nonconductive as it projects through the opening is not supported in either the specification or drawings.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 11, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hunter et al.

Hunter et al discloses in figures 1-7 an electrical circuit selector assembly including an electrical housing 22 having at least one opening therein and having a first side and a second side; at least one electrical conductor 30 associated with the at least one opening on the first side; and at least one circuit selector 78 positioned proximate the at least one opening on the second side. The at least one circuit selector having a protrusion 78c oriented to extend through the at least one opening and electrically contact the at least one electrical conductor. The circuit selector is attached at one end to the support structure 76 with the opposite end being associated with the protrusion.

Art Unit: 2832

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 3-10, 12-15, and 17-20 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed December 10, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The arguments for claims 1, 2, 11, and 16 are directed toward the new matter added in the present amendment. The inclusion of the protrusion being electrically nonconductive is neither shown nor described in the specification. The arguments are not relevant as to the supported claimed subject matter. Therefore, the rejection stands.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
